

Jaime Sánchez
Processes and Regulations Specialist

Professional Profile – Jaime Sánchez

Jaime Sánchez is an attorney specializing in Public Law, regulation, and normative management, with extensive experience in drafting, reviewing, and applying administrative and regulatory instruments. He is responsible for developing regulatory analyses, legal criteria, resolutions, agreements, and contracts, ensuring technical precision and legal consistency.

Public Sector Experience and Regulatory Expertise

With more than ten years of experience in public institutions, Jaime has led legal advisory processes, supported the development of regulatory frameworks, coordinated interinstitutional efforts, and analyzed complex legal cases. His background includes expertise in administrative law, constitutional law, human mobility, and public management, contributing to informed decision-making in high-complexity environments.

Regulatory Compliance and Technical Review

In the private regulatory sector, Jaime conducts technical reviews of labels, packaging, trade regulations, and compliance requirements for national and international companies producing prepackaged products. His work integrates legal analysis, interpretation of technical standards, and verification of regulatory criteria to ensure precise, efficient, and robust legal compliance.

Value Proposition

Jaime's profile combines strong legal analysis, advanced technical writing, and consistent regulatory rigor. His cross-sector experience enables him to ensure comprehensive compliance, support regulatory development, and deliver high-quality legal and normative solutions.
